PUMP CO. MEN STRIKE

Harrison, N. J., April 18.—Although promised a 10 percent increase in wages, about 1,000 employees of the Henry R. Worthington Steam Pump company went on strike today because their demand also for an eight hour day was not granted. About 200 employees agreed today to the compromise offer of more money and the same working time and remained at the places.

REV. J. C. GODDARD TO SPEAK

The Men's League of St. Paul's church have engaged Rev. John Calvin Goddard of Salisbury, Conn., who will speak on "How to Get Your Man" including his famous paragraph, "That Old Road." In the parish house on Beach street Tuesday evening at eight o'clock. Ladies will be welcome. Admission will be free. A lunch will be provided and a social hour will follow the address.

QUAKER OATS CO.

ON TRIAL AS TRUST

Chicago, April 18.—Trial of the Quaker Oats Co. for alleged violation of the anti-trust laws was begun today before Judges Christian C. Kohlhauff, Francis E. Baker and Samuel A. Schuler, of the United States circuit court of appeals. The suit was begun in 1913 and has now come to trial for the first time, but under an act passed in 1910, which provides for the expediting of cases on trial before those judges not as an appellate court but as a special court. The expediting certificate was filed with the clerk of the district court here Jan. 18, 1916. The trial of the case will be entirely from depositions and briefs. The actual testimony has been taken in all parts of the country before commissioners.

No session will be held by the Supreme Court on Good Friday.

NEW YORK BOYS VISIT PARK CITY TO ACQUIRE COIN

Go Back To Metropolis Disillusioned and Without Much Cash.

After pawning their baseball gloves and other paraphernalia used while playing the national game in the streets of Gotham, five youngsters, ranging from 14 to 17 years of age, arrived in this city yesterday aboard the steamer Naugatuck. They came here to get enough money to allow them to take part in the "grand opening" at Claussan Point, which takes place Easter Sunday.

It was the belief of the quintet that passengers on board the Sound steamer, after draining glasses of beer, would throw the glasses into a corner of the boat. They believed that deckhands later threw the discarded glasses overboard. It was their intention to gather up the glasses and sell them to a junk dealer in this city. A glorious time was to be had with proceeds of their expected sale of junk. This is the story they told Superintendent Gordon of the charities department.

The "gang" was composed of Harry Willard, aged 14, 593 E. 139th street; Jacob Sindell, age 15, 592 E. 139th street; William Moss, age 17, 577 E. 133 street; Larry Leecham, age 15, 427 E. 140th street; and John Williams, age 14, 517 E. 138th street.

Sindell, whose father is the proprietor of a meat market, was the father of the idea. Claussan Point is an amusement resort. Elephants, tigers and all sorts of wild animals, the boys said, will be on exhibition and the boys planned to have a joyous time. Before leaving New York city they purchased four bottles of soda water, the "two for five" variety, some candy and a supply of cigarettes.

To their surprise the bartender aboard the steamer Naugatuck collected every glass after it had been drained. Not a single stein was discarded and the boys were disappointed when they landed at the foot of Fairfield avenue last evening. They had 40 cents.

After the long afternoon sail on the Sound the party began to feel the pangs of hunger. They purchased coffee, a loaf of bread, some liver-wurst and a bag of candy. This was done at the store of Mrs. R. C. Smith in Stratford avenue. They spent the night sleeping on the dock at the foot of Wall street.

Hunger stricken and thirsty they applied at the office of Spencer R. Gordon, superintendent of charities, at 9 o'clock this morning. They told the head of the charities department that they had applied for work at the Remington Arms & Ammunition Co., but were refused employment.

Superintendent Gordon gave each boy a railroad ticket to New York and told them that their parents must reimburse the city of Bridgeport for the railroad fares within seven days or the children will be summoned to appear before the children's court in New York.

TERMS TO SUIT

Advertising Records for the Past Ten
Years Are Shattered by This Offer

For that length of time we have kept a careful record of advertising offices of special character made by firms in this and many other cities and to our positive knowledge gained from these records we can state positively that this is the greatest upholstered furniture offer ever made by any firm.

We Adhere Strictly to Facts in All of Our Advertising Statements

We know that such statements as "The greatest value ever offered" are frequently made by many stores. Usually only for advertising effect. But we are not given to making idle and irresponsible statements and the public's familiarity with our policy lends added value to this offering today.

Every Piece a Reproduction of Classic Design

The men who designed these chairs and rockers took for their models some of the masterpieces designed by Busch, the world's foremost designer of upholstered furniture. They represent three distinct types of upholstered furniture—the squatty Low Boy, the high back fireside wing style, and the plain back models.

All Are Upholstered in a Good Grade of Genuine Leather

When we say that these chairs and rockers will stand lasting service for a generation, we do so because we know how, and of what, these chairs and rockers are made. We know that the frames and the spring construction are the very finest obtainable. We know that the genuine brown Spanish leather is the best grade obtainable. We know that the factory that makes these chairs and rockers is well known from coast to coast for its fine workmanship. We therefore thoroughly guarantee every one of these pieces of furniture.

Friends Fined For Restaurant Row

Leaving a table in a restaurant at Water and Bank streets for a glass of water last night Albert Callahan, age 21, 239 Olive street, returned to find that his seat was occupied by another patron of the restaurant.

Callahan had already ordered a meal and on seeing that his seat was taken he refused to pay for the meal. Neither would he eat the food standing up. He left the restaurant accompanied by his comrade, David Toohy, 135 Fairfield avenue. Toohy informed Callahan that he had paid for the meal. The latter then entered the restaurant and demanded that the meal be served him. A fight ensued and both young men were arrested. In city court today Callahan was fined $10 and Toohy was fined $5 by Judge Frank L. Wilder.
